

WE'RE SICK PEOPLE,

NOT BAD PEOPLE

Presented by

Joshua Trujillo, CPSW

FRIDAY

MARCH 22nd

10:00—11:00 MT

Josh Trujillo is a certified peer support worker (CPSW) at the Pecos Valley Medical Center. Mr. Trujillo has been a CPSW since 2012, working with individuals to assist them in their recovery.

During this video-conferencing presentation participants will:

- ◇ Gain a better understanding of the addiction recovery process from an individual with lived experience
- ◇ Recognize addiction as a disease
- ◇ Identify how to communicate with someone who may be experiencing addiction
- ◇ Understand the role of peer support workers and how they can assist in the recovery process.

If you would like to attend this presentation please contact Jenn Earheart at jearheart@cabq.gov to receive the Zoom link.
